Local and Personal

Jno. Briscoe was attending to business matters in the city Monday.

H. H. Hargis, the R. I. agent, is spending the week in Chicago and Kansas City.

W. F. Buchanan bought two lots on Center street west of the Eagle cornice works, Tuesday from Thomas Egerton.

Rev. J. M. Campbell and Rev. W. V. Teer came in the first of the week from Melrose where they had attended the district conference. Rev. Teer is minister of the M. E. Church, South, at Watrous, N. M.

G. C. Igo, president of the Trust & Savings Bank, spent several days in town. He was returning from a trip home in Kentucky and stopped off en route back to his ranches. He was surprised to see the very rapid growth Tucumcari has made in such a short time.

A A Ranch was this week purchased by W. F. Buchanan, president of the First National bank for a consideration of $5,000.00. The ranch was property of Sheriff J. A. Street, and is located near Tucumcari mountain and about two miles south and a little east of town.

The Gerhardt block is still tied up on account of lack of material which the contractors have ordered weeks ago.

Earl S. Wood, of Denison, Texas, came in Sunday night from that place to visit his brother, Wood, the tailor.

The east end of the McGee addition is filling up rapidly with residences. One hardly realizes just how fast Tucumcari is improving unless he keeps track of these things.

The J. C. Jones building is going on towards completion and is going to be one of the best lookers on Second street. Mr. Jones is a very enterprising citizen, and is one among a good number of boosters for the development of our town.

Judge R. L. Patterson and Gus Mathis returned Tuesday from Santa Rosalia, Mexico, where they had been taking the baths for rheumatism. They are entirely relieved. The boys say the springs are probably the best in the world, but that the accommodations are something fierce. Attorney C. C. Davidson is still there and improving very rapidly.

W. A. Jackson returned the first of the week from Amarillo, and is feeling like we may, some of these times, expect the Choctaw into Tucumcari. Mr. Jackson belongs to our progressive business people and is always looking for an enterprise that is going to help our town and county. In other words he is a booster for Tucumcari and Quay county.

Our May Sale

Cotton goods are advancing every day. Cotton is worth more today than it has been for years. All raw material is scarce, and prices on all kinds of goods are steadily advancing, therefore a real bargain today, will be almost a double bargain thirty days from today. It has been our custom every year to have a special sale in May, our May sale, when we mark everything at greatly reduced prices to give the bargain hunting public a chance to grow fat.

We will not deviate from our sale this year, although the goods that we sell you will cost us more money when we buy them again. We have secured more than 1,000 remnants for our May sale. Remnants of everything sold by yard from carpets and linoleum to laces and embroidery.
